ROBERT BASIGER

Dedication

We, the Class of 1950, dedicate our annual to the memory of our beloved classmate, Bob Basiger, whom we cherished as a friend and respected as a student.

HISTORY OF 1949-1950

Thirteen-hundred and twenty-one South students returned to their classrooms to find them equipped with new fluorescent lights. Other improvements were clean walls, a new flooring in the auditorium, and glass bricks in the industrial arts rooms and the cafeteria.

School got off to a good start with the magazine campaign reaching a total of $2,309.30, the second highest sales since the campaign was started twenty-one years ago.

On October 21 we had our annual Homecoming Celebration with the crowning of the King and Queen, Dick Snider and Betty Aller.

We enjoyed several dances which had such intriguing names as: "The Gold Rush," "The Lollipop Hop," "The Basketball Bounce," and "Cupid's Twirl."

The Central Dragons could not keep pace with the South High Tigers football or basketball teams.

Marching formations for football games, Christmas Vespers, a Spring Concert, an Easter assembly, and an operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance," were presented by the Music Department.

On November 17 and 18 the Junior Class presented "Meet Me in St. Louis," and the Senior Class gave "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" on April 27 and 28. The drama classes gave six plays for assembly programs.

Our debate team won a forensic trophy at Republic, Ohio, on February 18.

Our vacations were: October 28—Teachers' Meeting in Toledo; November 24, 25 — Thanksgiving; December 26 to January 2—Christmas; February 22, Washington's Birthday; April 6 to 12—Easter; and May 30—Memorial Day.

The weather wrought much havoc. Often we repeated, "Rain, rain, go away!" It was feared that we might have to close school because of the coal shortage. On March 13 we were saddened by Miss Hattie Joseph's injury caused by a fall on the ice. We were grateful to Mrs. Helen Rose for finishing the term for Miss Joseph.

For the most part, the year 1949-1950 was very enjoyable, and we hope that all of the years to come will be as pleasant as this one.

The duties of the Board of Education are inspectorial and legislative, and the responsibilities of the members are many and varied. Regular meetings are held the fourth Tuesday of each month and special meetings are called whenever necessary. The Board establishes the salary schedule of teachers and employees, makes rules and regulations governing school functions, and sets the policies in general of all school activities.

Ohio State University
Superintendent of Schools

BOARD OF EDUCATION

During the three years in which Mr. Gordon G. Humbert has been superintendent of schools, the Board of Education has embarked upon a much-needed building program. An attempt was made to begin where the need was greatest. To date, Lincoln School has been completed; South, Central, Garfield, Whittier, Longfellow, and Roosevelt have been rehabilitated; the new Emerson, Irving, Lowell, and Washington-McKinley have been started; and the contract for Horace Mann has been let this spring. A new senior high school is planned as the next step in the program.

Improvements have been made in our health program, sight-saving class, slow-learning class and testing program. Strides have been taken in creating interest on the part of the public in a sound educational program through school-community councils and committees.

MEMORIES OF '50

The memories of our six years at South were happy ones for all of us. Remember when we were in the seventh grade? It doesn't seem so long ago, does it? Maybe some of you don't know it but there was a boy, an awfully nice boy, too, who started learning the same subjects we did way back in the seventh grade. He mastered them well—he was the only student in our class to graduate with straight "1's." This was Richard Stedcke, our only bedside student.

Other outstanding members of our class were Jim Coats, who served as our president three out of our six years at South. It was quite a task for Janice Beech to take over the job of being Sports Editor of the "Rainbow" and do a good job of it too. I think she and her assistants need to be congratulated. Speaking of the "Rainbow", it won Superior rating at the contest held at Bowling Green in April, 1949. A good share of the credit goes to this year's capable Editor-in-chief, Ann Putman. At the Ohio Future Retailers' Convention held in Columbus, Elaine Stedke was elected Secretary of the State Future Retailers. At the National Convention in Ashville, North Carolina, Elaine was elected National Secretary of the Distributive Education Clubs of America.

In our junior year we felt quite honored that one of our classmates, Nancy Knierim, was chosen for the lead in the operetta, "Robin Hood". Nancy, I'm sure would rank high in any kind of musical program for she has a lovely voice. Many of our classmates have won special honors for their work in the band and orchestra. Eleanor Casey, one of our majorettes, won special honor for herself and our school by tying for third place in the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce Band Festival.

Eldon Sykes was named on the third team of the All-Ohio Football team. It was an honor for South as well as for Eldie. Two of our cheerleaders, Janet Shade and Janet Cramer, have served faithfully on our varsity squad for four years. For their service they received gold cups which they really deserved. This year was the first to see a girls' basketball game here at South open to the public. The name of the game was the G.A.A. All-Stars. Daisy Hooks, president of G.A.A., really had her hands full planning this game. Everyone had a good time though, and all agreed it should be a yearly event.

As all good things must come to an end, so must our years here at South. We will be gone but there will be others just as capable follow us. Perhaps they will glorify the name of "South" still more than we and our predecessors have done.

This cheer was heard at all the basketball games and honored the boys of the 1949-50 basketball team which included Tom Coon, Jim Coats, Bill Rutledge, Bud Purdy, Eldon Sykes, Dick Johoske, and David Coleman. The boys certainly deserved recognition, too, for during the regular season they twice downed the cross-town Dragons and reached the semi-finals in the district tournament where they defeated St. Marys 56-54 and lost to Findlay 59-28. The season's record was nine wins and seven losses. The team was coached by Mr. Joe Bowers with Eldon Sykes acting as captain.

They lost to powerful Findlay and Lima Central by the scores of: 84½-33½, 82-33 respectively. They ended the season by participating in the District Track Meet.

Varsity Cheerleaders—D. Michael, J. Shade, R. Culp, B. Emerson, J. Fundum, J. Cramer, J. Carr.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

A lot of practice and a lot more patience goes into the making of a good cheerleader. Also they must have gracefulness, ability to form symmetric patterns, perfect timing, and rhythm. They must be on hand at all games to lead the student body in cheers. To liven up the pep assemblies is another one of the cheerleaders tasks.

We had seven cheerleaders this year, four seniors: Janet Cramer, Ruth Anna Culp, Janet Shade, and Joe Carr. The only Junior was Joan Fundum, and the two Sophomores were Barbara Emerson and Donny Michael.

Cheerleading awards are a letter, one year; gold megaphone, two years; a medal, three years; and a trophy cup, four years.

GOLF

The members of the 1949 golf team were Kenith Bowsher, David Clippinger, Robert Keller, Jim Mack, Bob Sterrett, and Dave Swords. Games were played on the Lost Creek Course. Matches were placed with Kenton, Findlay, Central, Bellefontaine, St. Rose with a 50-50 average. We also entered the Greater Ohio League at Springfield, and the District Meet at Findlay. Mr. George Figgins was the coach.

Golf Team—D. Swords, B. Sterrett, R. Keller, K. Bowsher, D. Clippinger, J. Mack.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS

The members were: Virginia Lanker, Janice Stumpp, Magnolia Henderson, Barbara Crawford, Ann Downing, Kay Barnes, and Douglas Cotner.

"What activity outside of regular school do you enjoy most?" This question was recently asked the eleventh and twelfth grade students. More girls answered G.A.A. than any other single activity. These girls are learning the rules of good sportsmanship through the various activities sponsored by G.A.A.

Swimming, bowling, and archery were added to the regular basketball, volley-ball, soccer-baseball, badminton, and shuffleboard. Miss Doris Shank, director of G.A.A., had plans to increase these sports so that all girls will have a chance to participate in the sport of their choosing.

A club with such varied activities needs capable officers, and the role was well filled with Daisy Hooks, as president; Betty Aller, vice-president; and Eleanor Casey, secretary-treasurer. Class representatives were twelfth, Ruth Rohrer; eleventh, Joan Fundum; and tenth, Carol Clark.

Homecoming: The Queen's Court and the crowning of Richard Snider, King.

This organization of students serves as a medium of student expression. Whatever concerns the interests of the pupils, without violating the administration policy of the school, is the province of the council. The student participation in school government in our school is not considered a disciplinary device, but a means by which citizenship training may be made more objective and real.

One student is chosen from each home room to represent the entire group. They meet every Monday during homeroom period in room 213.

The Student Council, under the leadership of President Bill Rutledge, Vice-President Vaceilia Loukos, Secretary Mary Yazel, and Treasurer Joe Carr, sponsored the Spring Dance, Homecoming, the Community Chest Drive, and collected food for the needy at Christmas time. Faculty advisers were Miss Zalia Harbaugh and Mr. Bernard Roush.

She has been trying to prepare these students for the Junior and Senior Choirs and has met with grea[illegible] success. This group presented several programs this year. The Christmas assembly was the outstanding presentation with Larry Zickafoose doing a great job as soloist. They also gave a program for the P.T.A. and made a radio broadcast. They meet every Wednesday at 3:05 in the music room.

"ROBIN HOOD"

Last year the Senior choir collaborated with the orchestra to present Reginald de Koven's comic opera, "Robin Hood." The musical was under the direction of Mr. William Tempel. Mr. Herbert A. Murphy supervised the orchestrations, and Miss Vera Wright accompanied on the piano.

The leads were taken by ten choir members: Fred Stumpp was the Sheriff of Nottingham; Richard Conrad was Robin Hood; Robert Shawler was cast as Little John; Jack Williams as Friar Tuck; Mary Alice Figgins took the part of Alan-a-Dale, traditionally sung by a girl; Robert Loudenback was Will Scarlett; Nancy Knierim furnished the romantic lead as Robin's lady-love, Maid Marian; Jean Davis was Dame Durden; Patricia Sterrett was Annabel, her daughter, and Alan-a-Dale's fiancee.

The rest of the choir were townsmen, outlaws, archers, men-at-arms, tinkers, and milkmaids.

The music was very beautiful and gay and the solos were exceptionally well-done by the leading characters. Those which were probably the most beautiful were "O Promise Me" and the "Legend of the Chimes" sung by Mary Alice Figgins, "Ye Birds in Azure Winging" done by Nancy Knierim, and the "Armorer's Song" by Bob Loudenback. Nancy Knierim and Dick Conrad sang a fine duet, "Farewell Until We Meet Again."

All in all, this was a spectacle well worth hearing and seeing, and everyone seemed to like it.

Regular meetings were held once every two weeks in room 218.

The purpose of the club is to interest students in the teaching profession and to acquaint them with the problems faced by teachers and to learn the qualities of a good teacher.

This year the club had a radio program in which new members were initiated; senior members did substitute teaching, and attended F.T.A. conventions.

The president of this year's club was Nancy Knierim; vice-president, Irma Benny; and secretary-treasurer, Sandra Comstock. There were eleven members.

The officers of the acting group, National Thespians, were: Suzanne Hansaker, president; Jane Westbay, secretary; Marilyn Turner, treasurer; and Peggy Doty, reporter. This group sponsored a three-act play, "A Date with Judy," and a one-act play, "To the Lovely Margaret;" which was given in a dramatic competition at Bowling Green.

The principal roles were held by Douglas Cotner, Allan Mettler, James Fairburn, Gaines Fields, John Wolfe, Janice Michael, Patty Corey, Virginia Lanker, Barbara Oost, and Mary Ann Wren. The musical score was lively and one of the songs was easily recognized as the tune to a more popular song that is familiar to everyone. The dialogue was humorous, and the cast did a good job of interpreting grown-up parts. Miss Vera Wright directed the score, assisted by Nancy Knierim and Natalie Miller as student directors. Tom Wendelmoot was student director of dramatics.

"Just look at that masterpiece!"—"My, what a lovely portrait!" Those are just two of the comments you would likely make if you viewed some of the work of the Palette Club. Of course each piece of work done isn't a masterpiece but, as they say, "Practice makes perfect." For, who knows, maybe someday a great artist will rise to the top of the art world who had his start in the Palette Club here at South.

The meetings of the Palette Club were occupied by practicing and studying different techniques and phases of art, such as: finger painting, pencil, water color, and charcoal sketching.

The Palette Club meets every other Wednesday after school in room 113. The supervisor, Miss Vera Griffith, is ably assisted by the president, Rhea Foster; vice-president, Jean Cumback; and secretary-treasurer, Joan Wilson.

"Now come on and really yell! You can yell louder than that!" All of us are familiar with these sayings which are heard quite frequently in the Pep assemblies presented by the Pep Club under the supervision of Miss Doris Shank. Few of us realize the importance of this club and the work that goes into putting on the assemblies, working out the cheers, and planning the activities for the year.

This year the Pep Club sponsored the "Basketball Bounce" on December 9. It also awarded pencils to the homerooms best decorated for the South-Central game. By the way, Mr. Reed, Miss Harbaugh, and Mr. Roush were the judges.

Joan Fundum, president of the club, was aided in the various activities of the club by Barbara Emerson, vice-president, and Sondra Emerson, secretary-treasurer. These girls could be seen tearing their hair out on several different occasions. One quite noticeable was trying to teach some of the Southern hep-cats the correct way of doing the snake dance.

"More school spirit and better sportsmanship" is the motto of the Pep Club.

They have learned to sit, walk, stand, talk, date, dance, make introductions, eat, and dress correctly. They have tried on different colors and used different kinds of make-up. Hair styles have been changed to best suit the face of the student.

The club members have no officers or special meeting place; instead they share the responsibilities for their various activities, held in school and in downtown restaurants, where they have eaten with their hostess, Miss Mary Beery.

The social conduct classes of the first semester this year were the first to use Miss Beery's new book, "Manners Made Easy."

There are a total of thirty-four boys attending the Vocational School from South High. Nineteen are enrolled in the Automotive Mechanics course and fifteen in the Machine Shop program.

The Trade and Industrial Education Program as it is officially known is a specialized two-year program for eleventh and twelfth grade boys who plan to enter industry upon graduation from high school rather than to enter college.

Three clock hours each day are spent in doing shop work. The remaining time is spent in taking one period of English, if a junior, and American history and civics, if a senior, and three periods of classroom work related to the shop course the student is pursuing.

The automotive course prepares students to enter the automotive industry as mechanics' helpers or apprentices. There is a great demand for skilled mechanics in this trade and the promotion possibilities are unlimited. Mr. Charles E. Brooker is the instructor of the eleventh grade students and Mr. Louis E. Haines is in charge of the senior class.

The machine shop course prepares students to become skilled machinists and tool and die makers from which they may progress to foremen or supervisors, if they possess the necessary ability. Many of our industrial leaders of today began with less experience than that possessed by our graduates. Mr. James A. Mohn is in charge of the eleventh grade class and Mr. Harvey A. Mohn is responsible for the senior program. It should be of interest to know that the machines used in training our students, are as good as will be found in any high school shop in the country.

The entire program is under the supervision of Mr. W. W. Chambers.

During the forenoon the twenty-three members of the distributive education class attended classes at school where they studied salesmanship, speech for business, merchandising, and modern problems. In the afternoon the group acquired selling experience by working in downtown stores.

The class had its own club, which is a branch of the Ohio Association of Distributive Education Clubs of America, with George Kelley as president; Nancy Ohler, vice-president; Elaine Stedke, secretary; and Juanita Weisenmayer, treasurer.

At Christmas time the club made a boy from the Children's Home happy by buying him new clothes.

Elaine Stedke was elected state secretary and was sent as a regional delegate to the National Convention of this group which was held April 16 and 17 in Asheville, North Carolina, and was elected national secretary at the National Convention for 1950-51.

Miss Helen Moon was faculty adviser to the Lima South Chapter of the Future Retailers of Ohio.
